

teaching staff is encouraged to make use of power point presentation to enhance the teaching-learning effectiveness.

The teaching staff shall maintain the Daily Productivity Report (DPR) on a daily basis on the works done as per the prescribed format.

Library: Every teacher shall visit the library frequently to make optimum use of the library resources so as to enhance their learning & teaching abilities and also to assist the students.

Dress code: Every teaching and non-teaching staff shall follow by the dress code i.e formal attire and should refrain from extravagance and flamboyance in dress.

Examination: Every Teaching and non teaching staff shall faithfully render his services for holding examination & discharge duties prudently and with utmost integrity for attainment of the academic standards. Attending to examination duty by faculty or staff members as per work allotment assigned by the Examination In charge, is mandatory.

Participation in college programmes: Every teaching and non-teaching staff shall participate collectively, individually and voluntarily in all programmes or events, held within the institution and extend support to the best of his ability in the interest of leading to excellence, ensuring joyful learning by the students and to generate a pleasant atmosphere in the institution.

Class teachers: All teachers who are given the charge of a class teacher shall perform all the duties assigned to them as determined by the Principal and the Academic Coordinator from time to time.

Prohibition relating to consumption of Intoxicant: All staff shall refrain from consumption of intoxicating substances.

The teaching and non-teaching staff shall discharge any other functions other than those mentioned above, assigned to them by the Principal from time to time, in good faith.

ASIAN LAW COLLEGE

Plot A2, Sector 125, Noida-201303 (Delhi NCR), India

web: www.alc.edu.in | info@alc.edu.in

Tel: 0120-4767701 | Mobile: 7303108007

ASIAN LAW COLLEGE

NOIDA, UTTAR PRADESH - 201303

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STAFF

VISION

Our vision of the future is to build ALC into a law school with a reputation that matches the reputation of leading world class institution.

Our long term objective is to become a leading Indian Law School known for excellence in the field of legal education. We envision ALC as an institution that produces outstanding lawyers which will have direct nexus with raising the standard of legal education in India.

MISSION

- The Mission of Asian Law College is to establish well researched as pragmatic approach towards legal education and legal practice to enable its students to meet the ever increasing demand of legal profession. Asian Law College aims at developing conceptual and practical skills of students and help to convert the abilities of students into legal and managerial competence which is the need of the hours. We at Asian law College strongly believe that a blend of relevant knowledge, skills and right attitude is essential for overall development of students which will determine their growth and success in the legal field.

Roles And Responsibilities

Every staff shall maintain a high standard of integrity, impartiality and devotion to duty having full regard to the vision and mission and also the position that is held by them in society. Every teacher shall carry out the work relating to teaching, research, examination or academic work assigned to them by college from time to time with utmost devotion. Every staff while discharging the official duty shall be guided by his personal interest, if any, affecting the discharge of such official duties, ensure utmost discipline, orderly behavior of the students in campus.

Attendance Policy:

The teaching and non- teaching staff shall arrive at the college as per the schedule and sign in the attendance register and / or punch in the bio-metric device, both in the morning and evening without fail. In case of late arrival, the Principal may condone such late attendance if he is satisfied with the explanation offered by the staff concerned or prior permission of the Principal is obtained for such late arrival.

Leave/ Deputation:

The teaching and non- teaching staff may apply for leave by submitting a leave letter to the Principal. However, the reason for applying for the leave/ deputation is to be discussed with the Principal prior to the submission of the letter. In case of exigencies a post facto leave letter can be submitted to the Principal on the day of reporting. In case of deputation on account of administrative or academic assignments, submission of the letter from the institution/ organization where the staff was deputed is mandatory. The responsibility of the teaching staff who are availing leave) deputation, shall ensure that their respective classes are not left unattended or let free due to their non-availability. In this regard, they shall also coordinate with the Academic Coordinator by informing their absence and also arrangement made to their respective classes.

Conducting classes:

The teaching staff shall prepare "lesson plan" for their allotted subject in the prescribed format before the commencement of the semester. The prepared lesson plan should also be presented in the staff meeting for faculty discussion and suggestion and same the must be submitted to the Principal. The teaching staff shall conduct the classes for duration of 60 Minutes, which shall also include class attendance and they must strictly comply with the class timings. The teachers must proceed in each class in accordance with the prepared lesson plan and must avoid any inordinate deviation to ensure the judicious distribution of time for the topic. The